Mommy Has Tattoos, 2006

Ages 4 to 8 years. Tells the story of a little boy named James, who is afraid of his tattooed neighbour until he discovers that his own mother has a tattoo as well. The book emphasises the importance of familiarising children with tattoos at a young age and eliminates the common notion of 'scary' that has sometimes been linked to tattoos. Tattoos are a source of pride for lots of mothers, and a source of endless curiosity for their children. The charming characters, bright colours, and delightful illustrations in 'Mommy Has A Tattoo' show children that tattoos, in fact, aren't scary at all!
